To whom It May Concern at the FCC:

Please listen, I'm only going to say this once. Instead of doing something that may be politically expedient and beneficial for you, do for once something that is best for us who pay your salaries. Trying to limit XM from providing me XM Instant Traffic and Weather is not benefical to me the consumer. You should be trying to influence them to get more cities on the system. When I spend many hours a day on the road, I appreciate the up to the minute reports.

Thanks,
